HIS OFFER ACCEPTED

Preliminaries Promptly Arranged for Next Year's Contest.

MR. ROSE PLEASSED WITH THE ACTION

English Yachtsmen Disposed to Regard Him as Impetuous.

NO CONDITIONS IMPOSED

LONDON, October 15.—Mr. Rose is evidently pleased with the prompt action of the N.Y.C. on his challenge for the America's cup, and talking over his future action, said that he was unable to say at present whether he would begin building or whether he would race his yacht in the Riviera regattas or in British waters before sending her to the United States.

He added: “Many details as to time and place must be arranged before I can take any steps. Doubtless the New York Yacht Club committee will confer with me.”

The Pall Mall Gazette, commenting on the acceptance of Mr. Rose's challenge, through the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, for the America's cup, remarks: “There is little doubt that English yachtsmen as a rule will not be altogether pleased at the impetuosity of Mr. Rose's challenge. That it implies a criticism of Lord Dunsany is denied, but the fact remains that even though the intention was absent, Mr. Rose is far better known on the turf than in yachting, in which Dunsany is one of the most distinguished amateurs, without reckoning the pains and expense to which he was put in his endeavors to regain the cup. Mr. Rose, moreover, has ceased to protest against the new deed of gift to which others have so strenuously objected. In addition, Soper is not the equal of Watson.”

FACED A GALE.

Remarkable Time Made by Washington Pigeons in a Recent Race.

The Capital City Homing Club held another race October 13 from Fayetteville, N. C., air-line distance of 287 miles. The weather was not in any way favorable for flying birds, as a strong northwest gale blew all day, and it was thought by all members of the club that no return would be made in the day, but shortly before 4 p.m. the birds began to arrive, and the race resulted as follows: First, W. H. Keyworth (C. C. 30), 318; average velocity, 579.3-518 yards per minute. Second, W. H. Keyworth (C. C. 30), 328; average velocity, 574.1-521 yards per minute. Third, H. K. Miss (C. C. 30), 218; average velocity, 571.7-518 yards per minute. Fourth, W. H. Keyworth (C. C. 30), 11; average velocity, 569.2-534 yards per minute. Fifth, Dr. H. Darling (C. C. 30), 161; average velocity, 568.2-535 yards per minute. Sixth, H. C. Wally (C. C. 30), 10; average velocity, 567.3-537 yards per minute. Seventh, Samuel Wallace (C. C. 30), 248; average velocity, 566.2-537 yards per minute. Eighth, L. G. Orndorff (C. C. 30), 10; average velocity, 587.5-571 yards per minute. Ninth, A. C. McLean; no returns day of loss.

CREEDON HOLDS HIS OWN.

Defeats the “Coffee Cooler” After Being Well Punched Himself.

“Frank Craig, the ‘Harlem Coffee Cooler,’ and Dan Creedon, well known in America, fought a twenty-round fight at the National Sporting Club in London last night, and Creedon won in the twentieth round. Among the first arrivals at the ring side was Peter Jackson, the English referee, who, about 9 o'clock, a stylish brougham brought Lord Lansdowne. Among those present were many well-known turfites, and Mace Burge, Pimlico and Cheltenham. At 10 o'clock the contestants shook hands. The opening rounds were contested in a friendly fashion, on the part of the work, Craig rushed and swung his right with such effect that Creedon, after being knocked down four or five times, went weak and was all but beaten in that and the two subsequent rounds. Still he fought gamely, and just toward the end of the eighth round he landed with the right on the jaw and shook “The Cooler.” From this point Craig boxed wildly and frequently clutched at the ropes, and ran around the ring to escape punishment. He occasionally swung his right, but Creedon had the best of matters to the end in the twentieth round. The progress of the fight and the result caused immense excitement among the roughs outside, and the police were obliged to close the ring to enable the club members to make an exit.

Eastern's Second Eleven.

The second team of the Eastern High School has organized, and would like to hear from all teams whose members average under 130 pounds. Challenges should be sent to Prof. Wilson, Eastern High School. The team lines up as follows: L. Combs, right end; H. Barstow, right tackle; H. Hunter, right guard; A. Stallings (C.), center; P. Harrison, left guard; J. Maupin, left tackle; Art. Parsons, left end; A. Harris, quarter back; A. Farnovitz, right half; G. Huver, left half; Wagner, full back.

The game between the eleven of Gallaudet College and the Potomac Athletic Club tomorrow at Kendall Green will be called at 4 p.m., with the following line-up: Potomacs. Positions. Gallaudets. Kline, center. Simelan. Proctor, right guard. Brooks. Lyman, left guard. Brooks. Lyman, capt., right tackle. Dudley. Burns, left tackle. Brockhagen. Aldark, right end. Roth. Miller, left end. Roth. Sals, quarter back. Hubbard, capt. Winn, right half back. Grimm. Duffy, left half back. Thompson, full back. Erd.

The Washington Chess Players.

The monthly meeting of the Washington Chess, Checker and Whist Club was held Saturday evening at their rooms, 614 12th street northwest. The vice president, M. O. H. Briggs, having resigned, Mr. W. A. Gwyer, Jr., was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

Messrs. Patterson, Martin, Alexander, Weaver and Finn were appointed a tournament committee to arrange for tournaments and contests during the winter. The present prospects are that there will be no more Libbey cup tournaments, as Mr. F. M. Wright bids fair to come out first for the third consecutive time, and thus secure the cup, under the conditions of the contest as his personal property. There will, however, be a tournament during the season, players in the District will be invited to participate. It is even suggested that an effort be made to get Pillsbury to visit the city and give an exhibition.

What Some Women Don't Know

About Children's Clothing isn't worth knowing—and likewise—what some women do know about Children's Clothing isn't worth knowing.

You fair-minded mothers who appreciate clean-fitting—well-made Children's Clothing—and know such goods must necessarily cost more than the “pasted-together” sorts so extensively sold in Washington—are the ones we want to look through our winter children's stock—and compare our prices—but the senseless “bargain-finds” who think a child's suit a child's suit—and judge by price instead of quality—we don't want in our house—have no time to waste with ‘em.

We don't want “one-time” customers—we're after permanent trade—and if there's a better way to get it than selling such suits as ours, at such prices—we don't know it.

Saying our $2-$2.50-$3-$4 and $5 suits are worth from 50c. to $2 more—and our $6.50-$7.50-$8.50 and $10 suits are worth from $2 to $5 more—isn't exaggerating one bit. Children's Hats and the “Mother's Friend” Shirt Waists, too—and a cozy little elevator to save you from walking.

Proper Footwear for Fall & Winter.

Do you know of another store that carries such a stock of shoes? Not in Washington, sure! There is just one way to do a shoe business, and that is to do it different from the others—watch the trend of the styles—watch your wants and whims and cater to them. Women have long wanted a Shoe that would be stylish and comfortable. They are growing more sensible every day. So along comes the “New Woman's” Shoe. The “smart” set of New York fairly grabbed them. We immediately introduced them to the “fashionables” of this city, and they have proved an immense success. There are two lines of these—the “20th Century” Shoe, “the College” Shoe, and they are priced from $3 to $6 the pair.

Ladies' Deerskin Waterproof Shoes, built on the “New Woman's” Idea, but-ton and lace styles. Per pair. $3.00

Same as above in spring heel. For ladies, $2.75; for misses, $2.00; for children $1.75

Ladies' Invisible Cork Sole Shoes, common narrow toe, lace and button styles. Per pair. $3.50

Ladies' “20th Century” Shoes, in deerskin, with wide extension sole, hand made lace and button styles. Per pair. $4.50

Ladies' “College” Shoes, of seal, button and lace styles and very “well.” Per pair $5.00

Ladies' Bright Deerskin “College” Shoes, by ordinary last, with wide extension sole, hand made lace and button styles. Per pair. $5.00

Men's kangaroo, calf, cordovan, seal, tan, enamel, patent calf, Russia and plaid. “College” Shoes, calf, broad throughout and absolutely waterproof—made especially for us. $3 to $6 pair.
